"Senegal is one of those places that leads you to believe maybe there is hope in the world. . . a jewel of Africa – and the world. . . an absolutely enchanting place to visit. It is a country that defies stereotypes and expectations at every turn. . . a multicultural, multilingual, extraordinarily tolerant society. Senegal is one of the best arguments for travel I can think of. It's someplace that everyone, given the chance, should go."

-Anthony Bourdain, the late celebrated chef and travel documentarian

An Introduction

Our curated journey to Senegal, often referred to as the “Gateway to Africa,” will introduce you to this creative and mystical land. While Africa is considered the origin of humanity, so much of Africa’s culture, art and spirituality finds its roots in Senegal.

Embedded in Senegalese culture is the Wolof word “teranga,” meaning hospitality. We will experience the welcome and warmth of the Senegalese people as we journey through this colorful country where tradition, history and modernity live in dynamic harmony. Globally known as one of the most politically stable and religiously tolerant societies, Senegal attracts visitors to its shores from all over the world.

Our journey will explore the poignant origins of the transatlantic slave trade, the “Negritude” (Black culture) movement, African contemporary art, the impact of French colonialism, and experience the wonder of African Sufism, its beautiful sacred spaces, as well as the indigenous artistic and musical expressions of a renowned Senegalese Benedictine monastery.

Our caravan will take us through the vibrant capital city of Dakar, and to the UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Island of Gorée, a reminder of the dark history of the slave trade and the resilient spirits of those who were affected by it. We will travel to see the largest mosque in Sub-Saharan Africa in the sacred city of Touba, home of the Sufi Mouride brotherhood, and to the African village home of Senegal’s first president and poet laureate, Léopold Sédar Senghor, who inspired an artistic and cultural awakening within Africa.

To enhance our journey, art will be woven throughout. We will meet Senegalese artists, learn about African oral traditions, listen to West African Mbalax music and the soothing sounds of the kora instrument, savor delicious Senegalese cuisine, bask in the sun-soaked beaches of the Atlantic Ocean, walk through artistic markets, visit a magical island by pirogue, marvel at giant baobab trees and a pink lake, and safari through a wildlife animal reserve.

Visiting this country of rich cultural heritage will be a transformational and unforgettable experience.

Join us on a caravan to explore the creative wonder of another world!

Tuesday

Visit the extraordinary Museum of Black Civilizations (Musée des Civilisations noires), which includes a special exhibition of work by the late renowned Senegalese sculptor Ousmane Sow.

Museum of Black Civilizations

We will then visit the Island of N’Gor via pirogue (a Senegalese canoe-like boat), and be led on a short walking tour of this vibrant artistic island, an “open air gallery.”

While on the island, we will visit artists' work spaces.

Lunch – at Chez Seck restaurant on the island of N’Gor – with freshly caught fish on the menu.

Later in the afternoon, we will observe the incoming fishermen on pirogues in the coastal area of Ouakam, and experience the fresh fish market near the famous Mosque of Divinity

Dinner – at The American Club on the coast

June 10
Wednesday

Dakar to Saly

Before we depart Dakar and head to the coastal town of Saly on the beautiful Petite Côte of Senegal, we will visit the marvelous shop called Cocktail du Senegal downtown for gift shopping.

We will then leave Dakar and travel to the Bandia Animal Reserve, a game park where we will see African wildlife in their natural setting, amongst giant baobab trees. The visit will include an introduction to the Serer people and the unique importance of griots (oral history storytellers) who keep their oral traditions, myths, and history alive.

Lunch: At the restaurant of the Bandia Animal Reserve overlooking a waterhole where buffaloes wallow and crocodiles rest in the sun.

Check in and Dinner – Royam Hotel in Saly
