

ABRAHAM: Out of One, Many

A timely artistic exploration on living harmoniously, inspired by Abraham, the common ancestor of three celebrated contemporary Middle Eastern artists from Muslim, Christian, and Jewish traditions

“ABRAHAM: Out of One, Many,” a celebrated peacebuilding exhibition that premiered in Rome, Italy in 2019, and that is now touring the US, is an artistic response to today’s climate of increasing prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination, whether related to color, faith or ethnicity, including a rise of antisemitism and increasing anti-Muslim sentiment. The exhibition is organized by CARAVAN,* an international arts non-profit/NGO, and curated by Paul-Gordon Chandler, the Founding President of CARAVAN and the Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Wyoming.

“ABRAHAM: Out of One, Many” (playing off of the popular Latin US motto “E pluribus unum” / “Out of many, one”) focuses on what Jews, Christians and Muslims have in common because of their shared ancestor Abraham, a spiritual figure of distinct significance within the three primary monotheistic faith traditions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam. The exhibition highlights what we can all learn from Abraham’s example about living together more harmoniously. In these three faith traditions, whose followers are referred to a “children of Abraham,” Abraham is seen as a model of hospitality – of welcoming the “stranger” and embracing the “other.” The exhibition attempts to artistically answer the question, “What can Abraham can teach us today about freeing our world from sectarian strife?”

The exhibition involves three celebrated Middle Eastern contemporary artists – Qais Al Sindy, Sinan Hussein and Shai Azoulay - from Christian, Muslim and Jewish faith traditions. Each artist has created paintings that focus on specific themes from Abraham's life that can guide our world today in living harmoniously, interpreting these themes for our contemporary context.

The exhibition is on a 24-month global tour, primarily to heavily trafficked sacred spaces. It premiered in May 2019 in Rome, Italy at the historic church of St Paul’s Within the Walls, and was then showcased in Paris and Edinburgh, before beginning its extensive US tour through the fall of 2021.
